Definitions

Household Income: the Household Income Information includes the combined income of all persons who intend to live with the Applicant in the dwelling. Income shall include all source(s) of income and current annualized gross amounts of income from any source, both taxable and non-taxable income, including, but not limited to: pay or earnings, overtime, IRA or 401K distributions, part-time employment, bonuses, dividends, interest, annuities, pensions, Veterans Administration (VA) Compensation, gross rental or lease income, commissions, deferred income, welfare payments, Social Security benefits, disability payments, alimony, child support payments, public assistance, sick pay, unemployment compensation, and income received from trusts, business activities, and investments.

For any Household with a child (under the age of 18 years old) for whom the applicant or co-applicant is not receiving child support, please complete a No Child Support Affidavit and submit the Affidavit with this Application.

For Household members age eighteen (18) years or older who do not have income, please complete a No-Income Affidavit for that Household member and submit the Affidavit with this Application.

Boston Resident: shall mean an applicant or co-applicant, at the time of application for an affordable housing unit is a documented full-time resident of the City of Boston.¹

Proof of Boston residency shall include copies of utility bills, voter registration, vehicle registrations, and/or copies of leases where the Applicant was the lessee.

Verification of United States Residency: At least one applicant shall document lawful resident status in the United States as either citizen, permanent resident alien (i.e., applicant has a “green card”) or other long-term resident status or visa as of the date of application.

The eligible applicant shall provide at least one of the following documents to document United States residency: affidavit, application disclosure, birth certificate, passport, naturalization documents, resident alien documents, and/or other documentation deemed sufficient by DND.

Asset Limitation: The Applicant may be deemed ineligible if the total of combined Household Assets is more than $75,000. Further, no more than one-half (50%) of the otherwise eligible buyer’s assets may be in the form of a gift. All assets, whether in cash, equity in real estate, investment funds or any other item of value will be included in the determination of assets. The only exception to this is government-approved retirement funds and college savings plan. Only if a retirement account or college savings plans are to be liquidated to support the home purchase will it be added to the asset calculation.

If an asset is necessary to the buyer’s primary source of income, such as a business owned by the buyer, some or all of the asset may be exempted from the calculation only to the degree necessary to maintain the buyer’s income stream.

First-time homebuyer shall mean the applicant, co-applicant or spouse has never owned in whole or in part a residential property except under the following circumstances:

- Legally Divorced Single Parent. A single-parent with primary custody² of minor children or who is pregnant, who previously owned in whole or in part a residential property but no longer has any rights to the property as a result of a divorce or legally binding separation agreement or,
- Inheritance. A household that received in whole or in part, a residential property as an inheritance but currently has no legal rights to that or any other residential property.
- Mobile Home. A household that has owned in whole or in part a mobile home but leased the land on which the property was located.
- Certain Forms of Co-operative Housing. While normally ownership of a cooperative housing unit would be considered homeownership, there are certain forms of cooperatives that are closer to rental housing than homeownership. Only co-operatives in which the shareholder received a mortgage interest tax deduction from the IRS will be considered to be homeownership for the purposes of this policy.

² Includes joint custody

Minimum Household Size shall equal the number of bedrooms in the property minus one.

Household shall mean all the persons who occupy a housing unit. The occupants may be a single family, one person living alone, two or more families living together, or any other group of related or unrelated persons who share living arrangements.

DND's Participating Lenders: First-time homebuyers who also want to participate in the City of Boston's Financial Assistance Program, will need to use a Participating Mortgage Lender. A list can be found at http://www.cityofboston.gov/dnd/bhc/Participating_Mortgage_Lenders.asp. Applicants do not need to use a Participating Lender if they are only applying to the NHI Program.

NHI Maximum Program Income Limit by Median Income: Program Income Limits are established by the US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and are subject to change. Maximum Income Limits for participation in the Neighborhood Homes Initiative is 100% of median income. However, some units may have lower maximum income limits.

Here is the link to the current HUD income limits.

DND's housing policies are subject to change;
policies in place at the time of a lottery application will apply.

Section 3. Application Affidavit and Certifications

(Please note, the use of the singular “I” or “my” below, shall include the plural in the case of more than one “Homebuyer”.)

I, as an applicant for the Neighborhood Home Initiative Lottery, do hereby certify and warrant as follows:

The information in this Affidavit and Disclosure is true, correct, accurate and complete in all respects, and incorporated herein and made part of this affidavit.

The Household Income Information includes all persons who intend to reside in the Property which I will occupy. I am including their age(s), relationship to me, their source(s) of income and current annualized gross amounts of income from any source, both taxable and non-taxable income, including, but not limited to: earnings, overtime, IRA distributions, part-time employment, bonuses, dividends, interest, annuities, pensions, Veterans Administration (VA) Compensation, gross rental or lease income, commissions, deferred income, welfare payments, social security benefits, disability payments, alimony, support payments, public assistance, sick pay, unemployment compensation, and income received from trusts, business activities, and investments.

I have attached documentation of my household income, to include among other appropriate documentation, Federal Income Tax Returns, weekly (or other periodic) pay stubs, or receipts for each Household Member who has reached the age of 18.

I am a first-time homebuyer. I have not had an ownership interest in a residential property.

I understand that the eligible buyers for the Neighborhood Home Initiative properties will be selected by lottery. I understand that these properties will be sold to a household at or below 100% of the median income. The income limits are attached.

I understand that if selected by lottery, I must occupy the property as my primary residence within 60 days after the closing of the mortgage and continually occupy the residence as my primary residence.

I understand that certain conditions are placed on the use and resale of these properties. I understand that the properties are subject to an Affordable Housing Covenant.

I am not currently, nor have I been within the last twelve (12) months, an employee of the Department of Neighborhood Development (DND). I am not an immediate family member of a current or former employee of the Department of Neighborhood Development.

I have never been convicted of real property arson, tenant harassment in Housing Court or violating Fair Housing Laws. I am not presently in mediation with the Boston Fair Housing Commission or the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination. I am not presently a defendant in a criminal complaint in Housing Court for a Fair Housing violation or in an arson case.

I do not presently, nor have I in the past, owe (d) any past due real estate taxes to the City of Boston.
