After You Submit:

- If your application is complete and received within the initial collection period, it will be entered into a selection ranking lottery with other applications. The highest-ranked application will be reviewed, and if eligible, provided the first opportunity to move forward with purchase. Lower ranked applications will be maintained on a waiting list.
- If your application is complete and no other applications were received during the initial collection period, your application will be reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis.
- If your application is not complete, every effort will be made to notify you of any additional information or documentation needed, but CHAPA cannot guarantee any review of applications before a deadline. PLEASE THOROUGHLY REVIEW YOUR APPLICATION BEFORE SUBMITTING.

Chapter 40B Buyer Selection and Approval Process

1. CHAPA will begin to advertise the property, making the Resale Application available to all interested households. Households should review the application and available materials to make sure they meet all eligibility criteria.
2. Interested households should work to submit a complete Resale Application as soon as possible. An application will be considered complete once all pages are filled out and all supporting documents are submitted. Applications must be submitted via the instructions listed on the Resale Application.
3. If more than one complete Resale Application is received by the deadline listed on the Resale Application, usually ten to fourteen days from the start of advertise, CHAPA will conduct a lottery to determine the order in which applications will be reviewed.
 - a. If only one complete application is received or no complete applications are received during the initial collection period, applications are then treated on a first-come, first-served basis for the remainder of the affordable marketing period.
4. Reasonable efforts will be made to notify applicants if an application submitted more than two days before the deadline is incomplete. CHAPA cannot guarantee review of the applications before the deadline, so applicants are encouraged to thoroughly review their own application before submitting.
5. Once the lottery deadline has passed, CHAPA will conduct a lottery with all applications being listed in the order in which they are drawn. No preference is given to any eligibility criteria; the selection is random. Applicants will be notified of their position.
6. CHAPA will review the first randomly drawn application first. If the applicant meets all eligibility criteria, the household will be approved to purchase the property and will be notified of their next steps. If the applicant is ineligible or decides not to move forward with purchase, CHAPA will then review the next-chosen application.
 - a. If CHAPA requests additional information or documentation from the applicant in order to verify their eligibility, the applicant will have 48 hours to respond. If the request is not met, CHAPA will move on to the next applicant.
 - b. If no eligible buyer is found during the lottery process, new applications will be reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis.
7. The property owner will be notified when CHAPA approves a buyer and the parties can proceed with the sale of the home: offer, purchase and sale agreement, inspections, etc.

If you have any questions, please contact Maritza Crossen at (617) 804-6558 or mcrossen@chapa.org.
